

CYBERSECURITY ALERT – FC1 Ultrasound System

Dear Customer,

FUJIFILM SonoSite, Inc. is aware of the recent Spectre & Meltdown vulnerabilities and has diligently evaluated the potential impact on the FUJIFILM FC1 Ultrasound System along with associated processors and operating system software. After a thorough investigation FUJIFILM SonoSite has determined that FC1 can be affected by the Spectre & Meltdown vulnerabilities. Mitigation for these vulnerabilities will be part of a software update that will be made available to FC1 customers.

FUJIFILM SonoSite remains committed to the safety and security of its customers, any further questions can be directed to technical support:
