

Dear Valued Customer:

Recently, FujiFilm SonoSite (FFSS) entered into an agreement with Vermed to take sole responsibility for providing supplies and dedicated customer service for the AxoTrack Sterile Procedure Kits. This change will take effect July 1, 2016, making Vermed your preferred supplier.

Vermed is excited to continue to enhance clinicians' confidence and control during ultrasound-guided needle placement procedures.

While Vermed will supply your needs for consumable AxoTrack Sterile Procedure Kits, FFSS maintains deep expertise in the hardware and clinical application of your ultrasound systems and transducers. For existing ultrasound system and transducer support, FujiFilm SonoSite Technical Support is available any time at 1.877.657.8118.
